

Brrrrrr . . . It's Taghum Hall's NOVEMBER NEWSLETTER

Fend off the winter blues
. . . with our Drop-ins!

Table Tennis (Mondays 5pm) hosted by Karl Rosenberg
Bridge and Other Games (MONDAYS 1:30pm) * NOTE NEW DAY!
Watercolour painting (Tuesdays 10am – 1pm) host Judith Rosenberg
Acoustic Jam – we need a host! Put up your hand and we'll find a time that works!
We'd still love to find hosts for a knitting/fibre drop-in and wee-ones playground drop-in.
Could that be you? Give us a shout at taghumhall@shaw.ca. We'd love to hear your ideas!

Four cool things to put in your calendar:

CRAFTS FOR THE KITCHEN:
A WORKSHOP IN SUPPORT OF TAGHUM HALL'S KITCHEN RENOVATION

Dollmaker, Susan Forster, will teach us how to make a cuddly Wadorf doll ...just in time for Christmas

$40 (SUPPLIES INCLUDED)
SATURDAY & SUNDAY NOVEMBER 19 & 20
1 - 4 PM
REGISTRATION LIMITED - CONTACT TAGHUMHALL@SHAW.CA TO RESERVE YOUR SPOT

Made with PosterMyWall.com

Taghum Hall
Brushes and Lunch
November 27 10am - 1pm

Join alcohol-ink artist Brenda Cavalier to create a beautiful 8" x 8" tile suitable for hanging and Christmas gift-giving.

$45 / supplies provided
Pre-registration required
Contact taghumhall@shaw.ca

Made with PosterMyWall.com

Please join us at Taghum Hall for

Food for Thought
A free series of potlucks with thought-provoking presentations.

Engaging the Citizen Patient: Driving Meaningful Change
with Dr. Selena Davis and a panel of local Patient Partners

Thursday, December 1
Potluck at 6pm; presentation at 7pm
Bring your interest, your questions, and a dish to share!

Dr. Selena Davis is a research scientist and digital health consultant. She is passionate about healthcare system transformation and empowering patients in health and care.

This free series is supported by a Neighbourhood Small Grant thanks to the Vancouver Foundation. For more information email taghumhall@shaw.ca

Taghum Hall's Winter Celebration!
Saturday, December 3
2pm to 7pm

An indoor and outdoor event featuring:

- Home-made and handcrafted items
- Entertainment of all sorts
- Much merriment
- A few surprises, and . . .
- The Jolly Old Elf himself!

Plus: delicious baking, lovely refreshments, twinkly people, and more than a few gnomes. Admission by donation.

COMING UP IN THE NEW YEAR:

- ▶ WHAT'S BETTER THAN TEA & A GOOD BOOK? Stay tuned for tea and culinary treats served up with a literary theme! This replaces our Autumn Afternoon Tea, which we have had to postpone. Date TBC.
- ▶ STAY TUNED: Write On! Is coming your way in JANUARY. This 10-session in-person information and sharing group for emerging writers that will be offered at no charge thanks to a friendly neighbourhood small grant! Write on, eh? More info to come!

PLEASE WEIGH IN:

- ▶ TELL US WHAT YOU THINK OF OUR PROPOSED KITCHEN UPGRADE (CLICK HERE)
- ▶ TELL US WHAT YOU THINK OF OUR GROUNDS REVITALIZATION: (CLICK HERE)

Gallery!

Harvest Fest, clockwise from top left: Mary at the borsch pot; Nancy in the kitchen; two lovely Ukuladies in the gazebo; weird veggies on the deck; Thistle Farm makes a customer very happy. (Thanks to Nancy, Anne, and Onami for the pics). Thanks to everyone involved!

PLUS, what fun we had hosting John Reischman & the Jaybirds! Thanks to the fabulous sell-out audience for your enthusiasm. Stay tuned for more upcoming "Taghum Hall Presents" events.

And finally, this bicycle wishes to remind its owner that winter is coming, and that it has been at the Hall since things were much, much warmer. Could said owner please come and get it? Thanks!

